

What Should I Know About Being a Limbic Arc Affiliate?

How can I become an Affiliate?

- To become a Limbic Arc Affiliate, you must have an active Limbic Arc software subscription (Friends & Family accounts excluded), sign the Affiliate Agreement found on LimbicArc.com, and earn compensation payments.
- All customers must sign up for a Limbic Arc software subscription through the personalized Limbic Arc website (often called a “replicated website”) of an existing Affiliate, who will then be eligible to receive compensation based on the new subscription pursuant to the terms of the Sales Compensation Plan.
- All Affiliates are customers, not all customers are Affiliates. All Affiliates and customers have access to the same Limbic Arc technology. There is no pricing difference between the software subscription of an Affiliate and that of a customer not engaged in marketing Limbic Arc.

What should I know about this business opportunity?

- Limbic Arc Affiliates enjoy setting their own schedule and choosing how and when to work.
- Most of our Affiliates start their business to make a little extra money by working part time and sharing the Limbic Arc technology with people they know.
- There are no guarantees you will earn money. Some Affiliates succeed financially, and some do not.
- Building a successful Limbic Arc business takes strategy, hard work, and time. Some people make a lot of money running a network-marketing/direct-sales business. Most people do not. Limbic Arc commits to helping their Affiliates succeed but makes no promise of any specific financial results.
